Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed:

After having carefully reviewed the prior art, the examiner urged the applicant(s) to further distinguish Claim 1 over the prior art, particularly the reference to Seipler. The examiner suggested language to further distinguish the relationship between step d and step c of Claim 1, most notably that step d occurs after step c. The proposed language that was agreed to by the applicant(s).

Furthermore, upon further consideration by the examiner, the examiner noted that the restriction requirement (paragraph 3, Final Rejection) will be withdrawn as Claim 1 is a generic claim. Thus, Claims 31-40 have been rejoined with generic Claim 1 and fully examined for patentability. Claims 3-9 have been canceled as they were substantially duplicates of Claims 31-40.

The restriction requirement (mailed on August 27, 2004), however, is maintained. The examiner urged that Claims 10-30 be canceled as they are directed to another invention, non-elected.

The applicant(s) have agreed to all of the changes above (as noted in the attached Examiner's Amendment), which places the application in condition for allowance...
